Contents

Acknowledgements VII

Introduction and Structure of the Book 1
Aleksandra Kubiak-Schneider, Bernhard Schneider

Serving the Gods: Exploring the Human Resources of Ancient Temples 5
Aleksandra Kubiak-Schneider, Bernhard Schneider

Divine Servants on Strike! Not Serving the Gods in Ancient Mesopotamia 15
Sebastian Fink

The Shepherds and the Cultic Process in the Phoenician World:
A new reading of the Phoenician Accounts of Kition 31
Stevens Bernardin

The Non-Priestly Staff of the Jerusalem Temple in the Persian Period
(Gatekeepers, Netinim, Sons of Solomon's Servants, Temple Singers) 43
Giorgio Paolo Campi, Łukasz Niesiołowski-Spanò

Child Priests in Roman Italy 69
Roosa Kallunki

Building for the Gods: Builders, Sculptors and Decorators in the Selected
Partho-Roman Eastern Temples 89
Aleksandra Kubiak-Schneider

Prophetes, prophetis and the epigraphic culture of Miletos 111
Krzysztof Nawotka

Jewish Soldiers in the Roman Army and Their Place in Their Synagogues and Communities 145
Haggai Olshanetsky

Second-line God's servants 171
Carl-Loris Raschel

DOI: 10.13173/9783447125116.V

Signifying Networks: Social Contexts of Meaning in Jewish Epigraphy of Late Roman Palestine 179
Alexei M. Sivertsev

Reconsidering the Assyrian King's Priestly Role and Ritual Performance 191
Zozan Tarhan

Egyptian priests: cultic agents, managers or civic servants 207
Agnieszka Wojciechowska

Religious Lives in the Small Sanctuaries of Hatra: Identities and Practices in Temple III through Epigraphic and Archaeological Evidence 217
Ilaria Bucci

The Missing Ritual Potters of the Ancient Near East? An Ethnoarchaeological Approach 255
Erin Darby

The suppliers of traditional clay incense burners made in Cyprus for ritual use at home and at church 279
Gloria London, Beatrice McLoughlin

Approaching the Divine: Material Traces of Donor Memory in Late Antique Christian Shrines (4th–5th Centuries CE) 297
Nicolas Samaretz

Bricks for the Gods: Archaeological Evidence for the Production of Neo-Babylonian Stamped Bricks in Rural Southern Iraq? 333
Bernhard Schneider